Top Reasons to Do Business Here

PRIMARY LOCAL SHOPPING CENTER

Lakeview Village is the dominant shopping hub in the city, lying adjacent to the only Walmart Supercenter, Target, and Lowe's Home Improvement store in the area. Tourists and locals alike patronize the many shops, services, and eateries that populate the center.

EXPANDING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

The city has demonstrated its commitment to identifying and fostering community economic development opportunities by securing federal and state funding for economic development activities and programs, and by assisting local organizations, businesses, and individuals in establishing their plans and projects.

AFFORDABLE COST OF LIVING

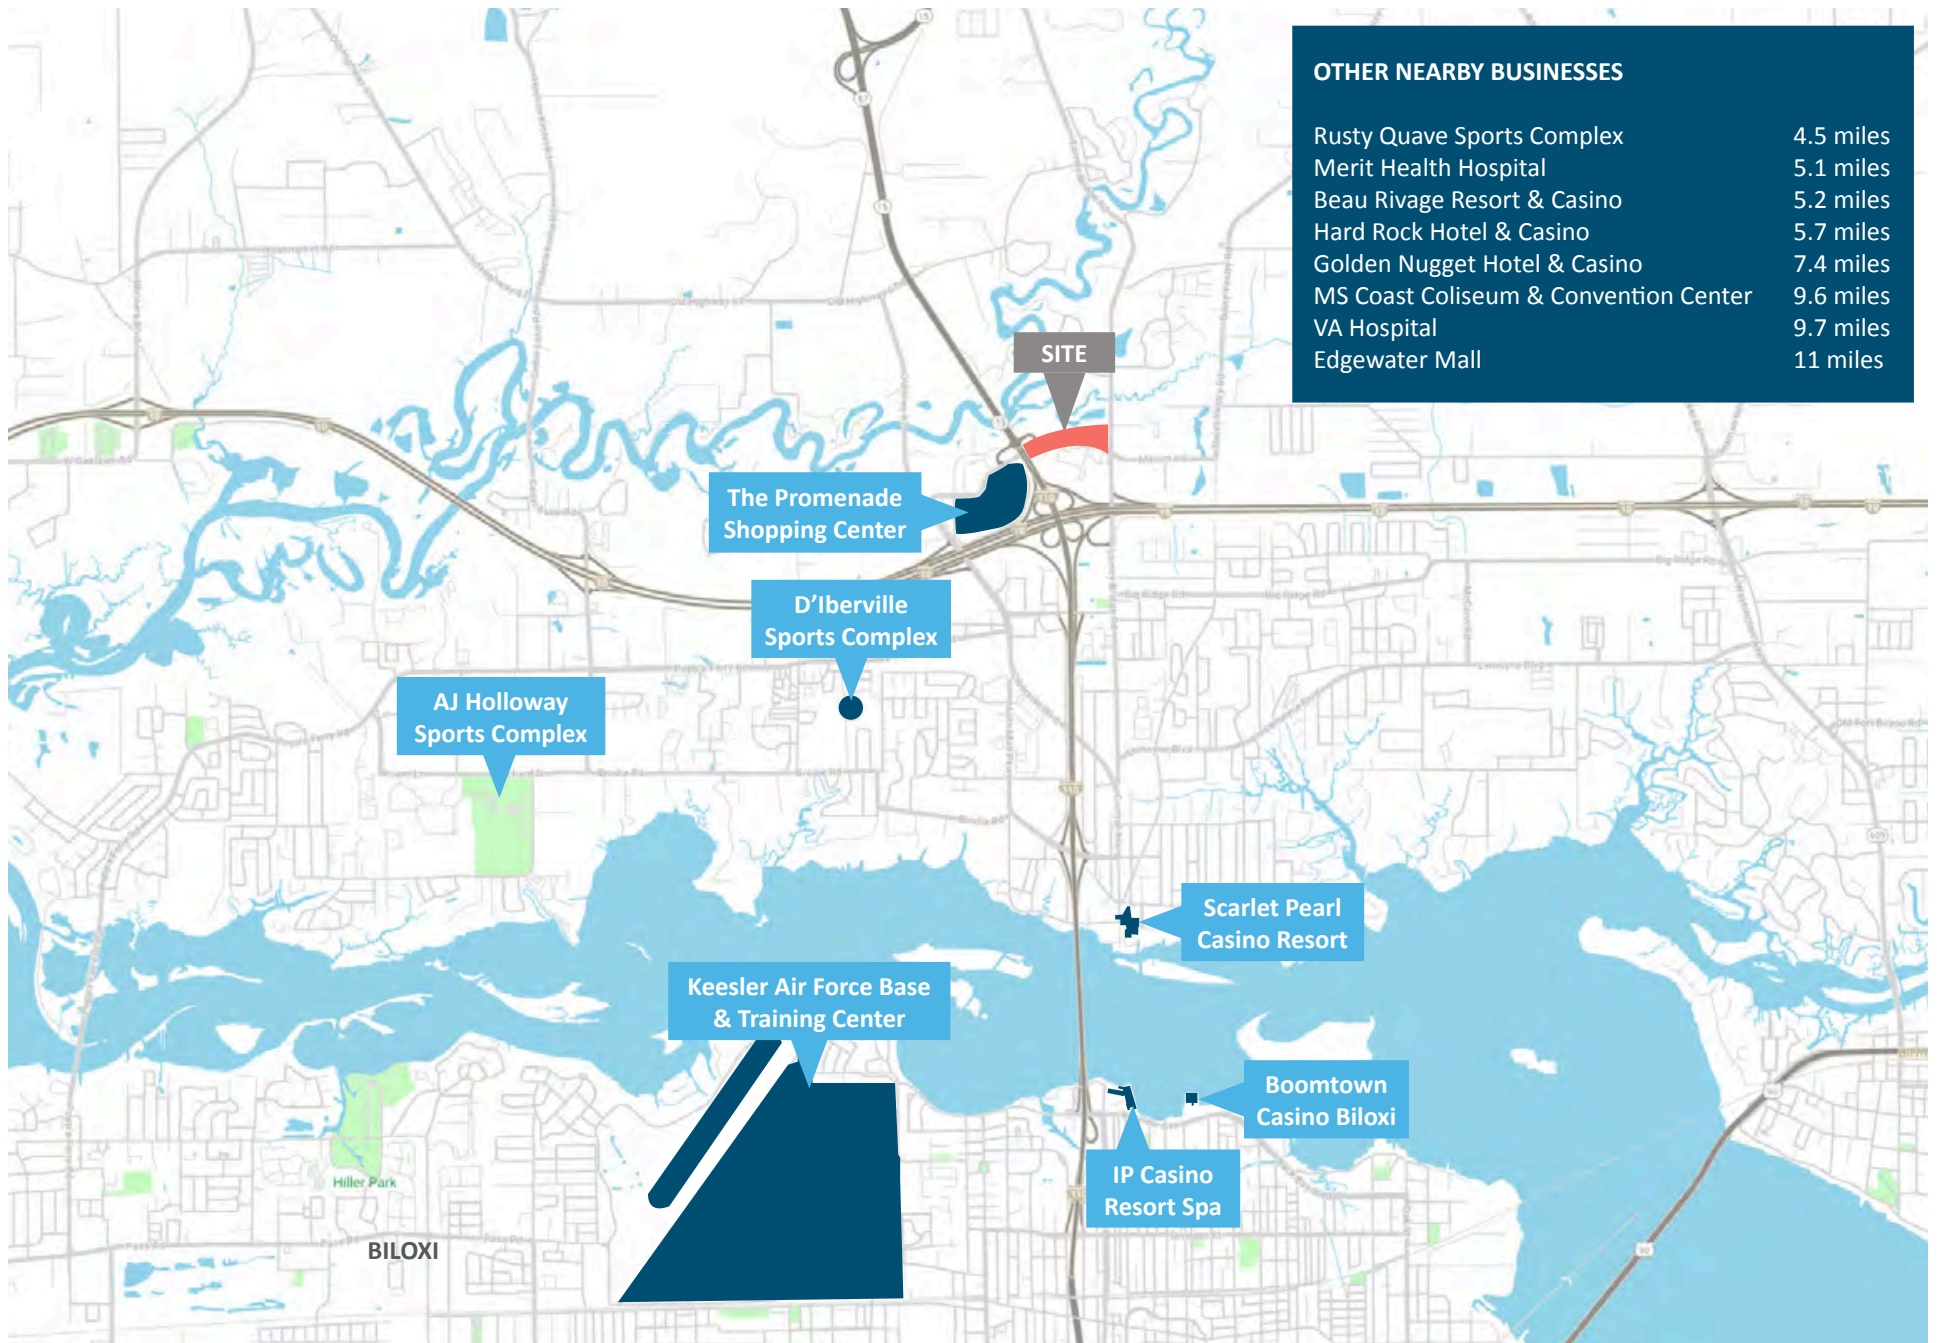

With a cost of living well below the U.S. average, D'Iberville is a family-oriented community that offers various leisure activities for all ages. The city of D'Iberville also takes pride in nurturing and supporting local businesses and growing commercial districts. Lakeview Village lies just four miles south of the 500,000+ acre De Soto National Forest, and four miles north of Biloxi.

THRIVING COMMUNITY

Established in 1988, the city of D'Iberville first began as a close-knit fishing village. Over the years, the city developed into a thriving coastal city that boasts tourist hot spots featuring the largest casino districts in the country, a wide range of both water and land sports, and waterfront living. The city attracts residents and travelers for a relaxed lifestyle and atmosphere as well as thriving local businesses that generate significant revenue.
